friendship for Tweed it is about to be gratified. WE HAVE no extradition treaty with Spain. Tilden and his friend; waited until Tweed arrived in the Spanish dominion before allowing him to be arrested.

WHITE LINE MOBS can take profitable warning from the fate of their friends in Charleston, S. C., on Wednesday night, who undertook to demand "half the time" at a Hayes and Wheeler ratification meet-

TILDEN is anxious (?) to be elected President so that Tweed may be extradited under a treaty, the negotiation of which was begun by a Republican administration-just for the honor of the thing,

THE WEEKLY NATIONAL REPUBLICAN contains the result of the Vermont State election and the orders of the President for the protection of voters in the South. Also all the current news of the week. It is now ready for the mails.

THE ROMANCE of Tweed's marvelous escapade, akin to that of John Surratt. another of Tilden's friends, will make a lively campaign document for the Republicans in the present campaiga. It would show the poetical side of Tilden's character, and would prove him to be not only a perjurer, but the aider and abettor of the boss of all thieves in his attempt to escape from justice.

THE Associated Press agent at Charleston, S. C., is a pestiferous Democratic carpet bagger by the name of Dawson, who is never better pleased than when inditing lying missives to Northern newspapers His most recent lie was when he charged that the recent Charleston riot was caused by Republicans making an onslaught upon colored Democrats. We have been reliably informed that such was not the case, and that the difficulty grew out of the predetermined plan of the Democrats to break up a Republican meeting by demanding "half the time." What manner of men are these Charleston rebels, that they cannot learn that American citizens will be guaranteed the right of peaceable assembly if it takes the entire army to enforce that right?

A BISPATCH from Jackson, Miss., informs us that the State Executive Commit tee convened there yesterday, for the pur pose of removing Henry Musgrove and J. Lake, ir., late United States marshal, from the chairmanship and secretaryship of the State Central Committee, which was done, and the Central Committee abolished. The duties of the latter committee now devolve upon the State Executive Committee, or which H. R. Ware, an uncompromising Republican, of Jackson, and assistant United States attorney, is chairman. This removes a traitor and a sorehead from the positions which they pushed themselves into during the apathetic condition of the party last spring, and now we will expect to hear of the inauguration of active operations by the Republican party of Mississippi. Speed the good work.

JOHN WINSMITH, or Hon. T. C. Dunn, would either of them make an altogether acceptable candidate for Governor of South Carolina. Both are sterling Republicans, and not so objectionable to the people at large as Governor Chamberlain. The strength of the Republican party can be rallied upon for either of these gentlemen, and under their leadership the State will be secure for Hayes and Wheeler. The time is near at hand when the South Carolina convention meets, and Republicans there can rest assured that they can only retain public sympathy by remanding to the rear the vacillating "gushers" who have been the Hiads of all their troubles. Chamberlain's tool, Cardozo, should also be required to "step down and out" from the treasurer's office.

WE OBSERVE that Hon. William A. Piper, of California, has gone home to est his own words. A recent press telegram from the Pacific coast says that he denies having asserted while in Washington that "gold "pieces were his constituents," and that "he did not know what in the h-! the "people of California sent him to Congress "for unless it was because he was richer "than old Christ," or that he had asserted in substance that gold had elected him before and would elect him again if he wanted to come back. That Mr. Piper did make statements to the above effect during the session is susceptible of proof by the most irrefragible testimony. Whether he was in that condition of body and mind to know and comprehend what he was saving at the time is another question. If he wants to lay the blame on whisky let him say so; that's all. But don't let him deny it, because it is of no use. There are too many witnesses against him. WHILE the Democrats of Connecticut have put up for their candidate for Governor an able man and one with a good war record, there will be much opposition to him within his own party. There is a strong feeling against Hartford, to which city Mr. Hubbard belongs, growing out of the recent consolidation of the two capitals by which New Haven was the loser, and because of the charge that Hartford monopolizes all the offices and State patronage. Mr. Hubbard himself is not popular with the Bourbon element, of which Senstor Eston is the head and front, and cannot | trol of the Republican party, that it was a hope for their hearty support. Anticipating their opposition, Mr. Hubbard was reuctant to accept the nomination, and only consented on the assurances of ex-Postmaster Hamersley that the nomination should be harmonious. Mr. Hubbard has once been beaten for Governor, and now when the full Republican vote is likely to be called out his chance is poor indeed. A full vote in Connecticut is always a Republican victory. PRIVATE TELEGRAMS from Charleston,

S. C., state that the recent riot there was recipitated by the Democrats demanding 'half the time' at a Republican meeting as they have been successfully doing in other portions of the State. To this unreasonable demand the Republicans refused to acquiesce, when they were fired upon by a White-Line mob. The Republicans being largely in the majority determined to stand their ground, and play a while at the White-Line game, resulting in the killing of several Democrats. We find the order of things for the first time reversed in this Charleston difficulty. Hitherto in the South forty or fifty negroes always bit the dust, the whites "miraculously" escaping without injury. While we unhesitatingly condemn mob law, yet we cannot be too warm in our commendation of those persecuted Charleston Republicans who resolved to defend their rights at the risk of their lives. A few more such receptions as that accorded the Ku Klux mob at Charleston by law-abiding Republicans will have a most salutary effect upon the political morality of Hampton and his bloody SENATOR CONOVER, of Florida, has candidate for Governor, nominated in opposition to Governor Stearns. His letter of withdrawal is printed elsewhere. This generous act of Senator Conover has effectcally harmonized all the factional interests among the Republicans in Florida, and primarily insures the success of the Hayes and Wheeler electoral ticket in that State. Since the Republican State convention, in June last, there have been two opposing Spain, and now with the aid of Tilden's Republican organizations in Florida, very evenly dividing the Republicans in that State. Governor Stearns was supported by one half of the party, while Senator Conover was very warmly indorsed by an equally numerous and by the more intelligent element, and by a large Conservative action willing to vote for Hayes and Wheeler, but hostile to Stearns. In this unfortunate situation the two Republican factions sent delegates to Cincinnati, where the Conover delegates were admitted, and the National Executive Committee subsequently recognized the Conover organization. Notwithstanding the strong position of Senator Conover, it was found impossible to fully harmonize the Republicans in Florida on either candidate for Governor, thus imperiling the success of the Republican electoral ticket. Senator Conover has sacrificed his personal claims, and Florida is now made safe for a complete Republican victory. Too much praise cannot be awarded to Senator Conover for his generous conduct under the circumstances, an act which increases the obligations of the Republican party in that State to one of its most discreet, able and respectable leaders, and which insures the confidence and gratitude of the national party. He has two years more to serve in the Senate.

> WHAT THE NATION WILL NOT PERMIT. The same element which, with its farreaching sway, menaced the Republic in 1861, is now rampant, and, aided by the copperhead and dough-face combination of the North, is making strenuous efforts to obtain control of the Government, and in the language of Ben Hill, "succeed in ac-"complishing by peaceful means, and "within the Union," what it failed to accomplish out of it with its armed batby any mishap the Democracy gains control. Everybody knows how rebels will domineer over loyalists, and how treason will be rewarded. It requires no fertile imagination to see ex-rebels filling all the offices of profit and trust under the Government, and those who fought to maintain the perpetuity of the Republic retiring into hiding places. Those who know the men are aware of the promptness with which Toombs, Wise, Davis, Lamar, Hill and others will flock to Washington and dictate the policy of the Administration. As the South held the balance of power prior to the war, plunging the country into chastly difficulties, is it not safe to assume that she will do so again to the nation's sorrow ? Are the people of the North prepared to admit that the war was a failure and the blood and treasure expended in its prosecution wasted? Surely Democratic success means all these things and more. t will be a foul stigma upon the gal'ant youth of the Republic who died that the nation might live. Democratic success means the virtual re-enslavement of four nillions of unfortunate citizens, who are toiling hard to better their material condi-It means that they are to be remanded to a condition of peonage, to the end that the Southern chivalry may again live by the fruits of unrequited labor. It is not possible that the intelligence and virtue of the American people can entertain for a moment the idea of turning over this great Republic into the hands of blood stained rebels and their sympathetic Northern allies. While the clemency of the people has allowed Southern arch-traitors to escape with their liberty, and permitted them to live only to traduce the lenience which spared their unprofitable lives, they will not permit them to again man the great ship of State, whose mission is to afford safety and protection to all. The class of men who are now aspiring to gain control should hide their heads through sheer shame. They ran the rebel ship ashore, and should not be intrusted with the pilotage of another. Their statesmanship is on a par with the Confederate money which is locked up in their trunks. A defeated, impoverished and discomfited people; a land filled with widows and orphans, oripples and premature gravesthese are results of the maladministration of the main supporters of the Democratic tricksters who are now making such herculean efforts to obtain control of the

CAN PARTY. It is said, and we think truly, that every man has his influence for good and evil. A Cabinet officer may not have as much weight in giving direction to public opinion as the President, but his power is great; a head of a bureau may not command as much respect as the Secretary, but his influence is not small; and so on down in regular gradation, until we come to the lowest employee. The messenger, the watchman, the laborer, the poor woman that scrubs the stairs, all have an influence, and though some may seem to be too small for notice, yet drops make up the bucketful, and in the aggregation every drop counts, has its due weight, and the bucket that has the most drops in it will be full and running over. This may illustrate the election of President, when every vote counts. Hence the importance of every influence that gives direction to votes, for the man who receives the most votes will be elected, just as the bucket that had the most drops in it was full and dripping over. We would naturally conclude in looking into the actual condition of the Departments of Government now under the con-

matter of small importance whether the Republican or the Democrat, the patriot or the traitor held the reins of Government. For we find five hundred at least holding places in these Departments who are exerting all the influence they can wield to defeat the party that nourishes them in its bosom, and gives them the means to exert teniold, yea a hundred fold, we might say, more influence than they would have if cast out as they should be, and left to struggle for subsistence with the wolf at their door, as many true friends of the party now are doing because these vipers are cherished. If the Republican party-the party of true patriotism-of progress and that saved the Union and life of the nation. and made it what it is to-day, should be beaten by the party of treason with its hands reeking in innocent blood, and that fought four years to rend the Union and destroy the nation, a fearful, a most terrible, responsibility will rest upon and crush with everlasting infamy those who might avert the evil if they would. They may think to shirk the responsibility, but this is a time of investigation, and the people will find it out. They know it already, and will hold them to it so sure as the sun continues to shine by day and the stars by night. The good and the true people all over the land are watching them; the six hundred thousand late Union soldiers, still alive, who stood as a wall of fire before the enemy to save the nation's life, are watching them; the widows and orphans of those who died on the field of battle, in hospital or the rebel prison hells, are watching them; and if they do their duty now, when the rebel yell of '61 is again ringing in their ears, warning them of the impending danger, gallantly withdrawn as the Republican and the blood of the Union citizen and freedmen of the South is crying from the ground for redress, and those yet alive asking for protection-yes, if they do their duty now the blessing of heaven will rest on their heads, and joy like the sunshine and peace like the dew-drop will come to them, and future generations rise up and call their names blessed. EDITORIAL POSTSCRIPT.

Tweed turns up just in time to help Tilden and the New York Democracy out of their dilemma. Why not make him their candidate for Governor? The little discrepancies in his accounts at New York could be explained away at the same time Tilden explains about his in come tax, and things could go on in the old ruts again.

Will some of our percentage friends tell us how long it will take the Democrats of Vermont to control the Legislature of that State if there is a falling off in Democratic representatives of 47% [per cent. at each election! Last year they had fifty-nine members of the lower House, this year but thirty-one. Go on with your figuring, gentlemen.

ture there of an American who had kidnspped several American children. In view of the fact that all America has been searched to find the ill-fated Charlie Ross, this announcement will at once arouse in the mind of the reader a thought of the possibility of this arrest giving some clue to the mystery, faint as the hope Elsewhere we print an article from the New York Mail on life insurance in Massachusetts as compared with insurance in New York. The Equitable Life of that city has a larger surplus and income than all the life companies of Massachusetts combined. The Equitable is represented in this city by Mr. E. McB. Timoney, of No. 808 F street northwest. Its popularity in this city is attested by the fact that the company is carrying nearly $2,-000,000 of insurance in Washington alone on the lives of our best business men.

A pleasant paper is the Greenville (S. C.) Enterprise, a paper full of the spirit of recon-ciliation and brotherhood. This is a specimen from its editorial columns: "The Democrats everywhere have by words branded the Republicans with infamy, and called them thieves talions. No sane man doubts the results if and scoundrels. It ill becomes a Democrat who thus speaks to associate with men whom he thus denounces. Governor Vance once asked Ben Hill how it was that Georgia had got so far ahead of North Carolina in putting fown Radicalism. Hill replied the reason was very obvious. When a man of social position oins the Radical party in Georgia, we not only brand him with infamy, but we put him in coventry, and all social intercourse with him is broken off. But in North Carolina you meet him and treat him as you formerly did. In the one case he feels his infamy and is deterred, and in the other case he does not. This remark is worthy of all consideration, and let every tru-Democrat act on it."

The Oakland (Cal.) Transcript says that 'under the terrible exorcism of historical truth the dumb devil of Democracy begins to cry out in hellish misery and ferocity. The recent expose of Gov. Hendricks' official connection with the Knights of the Golden Circle, and his implication in the infamous Camp Morton conspiracy, as embodied in the Oak and Transcript's several articles, and Col. Redstone's letter in the NATIONAL REPUBLI-CAN, at Washington, has had a crushing effect We are informed that quite a number of persons in this immediate neighborhood, who had been intending to support the Democratic Presidential ticket, have declared their determination to withdraw from a party in which they are required to support a notorious and shameful traitor. If Hendricks had gone manfully to the war and fought for his convictions as Longstreet, Stonewall Jackson, Mosby and other brave men did, the case would hav been very different; but instead of that the traitorous Hoosier skulked at home, employing himself in midnight cabals in Indianapolis whose purpose was to let loose the whole desperate horde of rebel prisoners at Camp Morton to plunder, to burn and devastate the State of Indiana, and to create an inter-revolution in the Northwest and set his old friends and constituents to cutting one another's Hendricks on the Lincoln Assassination. (From the Alamida County (Cal.) Gasette. At ten o'clock on the morning after the Linoln assassination a great meeting was held in the State-house square at Indianapolis. The war was over, the President had been foully slain, and the object was to gather in, rehabilliate and reconcile all the leading inhabitants of that great State, and wipe out the dishonor of the Camp Morton conspiracy. The great crowd was prodigious. Most of the foremost men of Indiana were there, Democrats and Republicans,on a great occasion such as had never before occurred in this Republic, to consider, condemn and deplore the only kind of regicide that is possible in this great nation.

A number of appropriate speeches were made, and among the others one by Judge McDonald, the present Democratic Senator from Indiana, who spoke humanely, magnifiently, like a cultured American citi was vehemently applauded by the great throng. Then there was a call for Hendricks—Thomas A. Hendricks, major general of the Kuights of the Golden Circle and head conspirator in the Camp Morton insurrection.

Mr. Hendricks rose reluctantly and in apparent trepidation. His face was very pale, his voice quavered and he was evidently ill at ease as he con'ronted the majestic State of Indiana in her loyalty and deep grief. He began to speak, to deprecate and deplore the errors and unconstitutional acts of the late President. A tremor ran over the vast as-semblage, and presently a man stood forth and cried:

"Take him down! Damn him, take him down!" A number of citizens collected around the excited man, quieted him down just when he was about to communicate his passionate impulses to the audience, and one of them said:

"Let him (Hendricks) alone; let him go on; he is making his history."

Mr. Hendricks proceeded in his speech, trying to tone it down from its unfortunate beginning. The vast assemblage listened to his miserable apology in sullen silence, and it was evident to all that the beastly copperhead, who had thus wantonly violated the public sense of decency, had just escaped being torn to pieces.

Tille well-known and popular Summer Besort, of the Maryland side of the Potomac river, sixteen miles below Washington, D. C., and opposite Mount Vernon, is now offered for sale on easy terms, or will trade for city property. The place contains 570 acres of rand in excellent state of cuitivation; has 15,000 youn peach trees, nearly all in bearing; an orchard o over 100 choice varieties of apples; a well-built old fashloned mansion, with 12 rooms and spaciol halls, a large barn and several outbuildings, all 1 good order, and assessing for excur-farm.

The river front is fitted up especially for excur-sionists, and is, without exception, the best locaas there is nothing of the kind within seventy-ave miles.

A public road leads down to the wharf in front of the premises, and is the principal, if not the only, outlet toward the river for fruits and produce from farmers in Charles county. The site is a good one for a store, and there is a building on the place admirably adapted for such a purpose.

The steamers Mary Washington and Arrow, from Washington, touch as the wharf on their daily trips downward and upward. The Lady of the Lake, the Jane Mosely, the Thompson, and the two Baitimore boats (the Washington and the Express) stop at regular Intervals, and daily excursions are run to the blace.
